FONTANET METH TRAFFICKER SENTENCED

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that MAX JUDSON, 39, Fontanet, Indiana, was sentenced to 188 months imprisonment today by Chief U.S. District Judge Larry J. McKinney following his guilty plea to conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine and related offenses. This case was the result of an investigation by the Indiana State Police and Drug Enforcement Administration.

The investigation revealed that JUDSON and Alan Roby conspired to deliver methamphetamine between August 17 and August 19, 2004. The indictment alleged that JUDSON delivered approximately four ounces of methamphetamine to a confidential informant on August 18, 2004 and that ROBY delivered approximately four ounces of methamphetamine to a confidential informant on August 19, 2004. Law enforcement officers searched JUDSON's residence on August 19 and seized over $6,000 in United States currency. Law enforcement searched ROBY's residence on August 19 and seized approximately six pounds of methamphetamine, digital scales, and plastic baggies. ROBY entered a guilty plea in June and is scheduled to be sentenced September 16, 2005.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Bradley A. Blackington, who prosecuted the case for the government, Chief Judge McKinney also imposed 5 years supervised release following JUDSON's release from imprisonment.
